

New Zealand Certificate in Farm Skills (Level 3)
		Credits: 50
Strategic Purpose Statement	The purpose of this qualification is to provide the agriculture sector with graduates who have practical farming skills and a broad theoretical understanding of New Zealand farming systems. This qualification is designed to be flexible enough to reflect regional and industry variations in demand for skills. Graduates will be capable of working under limited supervision in the agriculture sector.
Programme entry	N/A
Graduate Profile Outcomes		Core credits: 50
- Apply safe work practices in a primary industry context, while maintaining own health and wellbeing.
- Assist with production of feed for livestock.
- Assist with safe livestock handling.
- Assist with feeding livestock.
- Assist with animal health and welfare requirements.
- Identify biosecurity risks and assist with biosecurity practices.
- Assist with maintaining agribusiness infrastructure
- Plan and carry out operational activities using an agribusiness vehicle.		